American Society for Pain Management Nursing® Dr. Jo Eland, Excellence in Pediatric Nursing Award

Purpose:

The Dr. Jo Eland, Excellence in Pediatric Nursing Award, originally established in 2011 as the ASPMN® Nurse Exemplar Award, is presented to a nurse in recognition of outstanding contribution to the field of pain management for the pediatric patient. Self-nominations are encouraged.

Selection and Notification:

All nominations or applications and accompanying documents must be submitted via the online application site by the deadline noted on the website. The Achievement and Recognition Committee will review applications/nominations to select the recipient.

The following format and criteria will be used to select a nurse for recognition at the American Society for Pain Management Nursing® National Conference.

Eligibility Requirements:

Nominees must:

- Be a member of ASPMN®. Serving as a Board member, committee chair, or on a committee is an asset but not a requirement.
- Have demonstrated leadership and outstanding contribution to the field of pain management nursing.
- Demonstrate a history of extensive participation in pain management nursing practice, education, and/or research.

Nomination applications for the Dr. Jo Eland, Excellence in Pediatric Nursing Award should include:

1. Completed Application Form (back of this page).
2. Two letters of recommendation, not to exceed two pages each, at least one of which is from an ASPMN® member.
3. A current copy of the nominee's curriculum vitae.

Award:

The ASPMN® Dr. Jo Eland, Excellence in Pediatric Nursing Award recipient will receive:

- A complimentary registration to one ASPMN® National Conference
- Recognition at the American Society for Pain Management Nursing® National Conference
- Recognition in ASPMN®'s E-News.
